How to Book GAMCA Medical Appointment in Sri Lanka (2026 Edition)

This guide explains the official system-based process for booking a GAMCA medical appointment in Sri Lanka. The GAMCA medical examination is mandatory for Sri Lankan applicants applying for GCC employment visas.

What Is GAMCA Medical?

The GAMCA medical appointment, also known as GCC or Wafid medical, is a compulsory pre-employment medical examination required for Gulf countries such as Saudi Arabia, UAE, Qatar, Kuwait, Oman, and Bahrain.

Step-by-Step Booking Process

1. Start the GAMCA medical booking online.

2. Enter passport details exactly as printed on the passport.

3. Pay the GAMCA appointment booking fee of USD 17.

4. The medical center is automatically assigned by the GAMCA system.

5. Receive the GAMCA appointment slip via email and WhatsApp.

Documents Required

- Original passport

- GAMCA medical appointment slip

- Passport-size photographs (if required by the medical center)

Medical Examination Process

The medical test may include blood tests, urine tests, chest X-ray, and physical examination. Results are uploaded directly to the GAMCA system.
